"blue" Bollings

2 The "additional twelve" children reported by some to have been produced by Col. John Bolling and by his wife Elizabeth Bland Blair Bolling (see POCAHONTAS' DESCENDANTS pages 329-332) have been referred to as the "mysterious" Bollings and some genealogists refer to all persons as "blue" Bollings who are among or are descended from the "mysterious" Bollings and who are neither "red" Bollings nor "white" Bollings (their last name may be spelled Bolling, Bolen, Bolin, etc.).

Some Notes on Some Places

"Bolling Island" - Goochland County.

"Chellowe" - a photograph of a drawing appears in 19 V 21.

"Cobbs" - Chesterfield County on north side of the Appomattox River, about nine miles below Petersburg.

"Conjuror's Neck" - five miles below Petersburg on north side of the Appomattox River, and at mouth of Swift Creek.

"Jordan's"/Jordan's Point - Samuel Jordan, at an early date, erected a dwelling on this tract which in 1657 came into the hands of the Bland family. In Prince George County on Virginia Primary Highway 156, running from the southern end of the Ben Harrison Bridge to Virginia Primary Highway 10, and then a bit on beyond.

"Kippax" - ca. 1900 dwelling (1001 Bland Avenue, Hopewell) erected on the site of the Bolling home. Some years ago, the gravestone of Col. Robert Bolling (1646-1709) was moved to the family mausoleum in Blandford Cemetery.

"Rolfe House"/"Smith's Fort Plantation" - Thomas Rolfe owned this tract. Located on south side of James River in Surry County, nearly opposite Jamestown. Present house dates from early 18th Century.

"Varina" - said to be site of the home of Pocahontas and John Rolfe. North side of James River, about six miles east of Richmond.

Alexander R. Bolling, Jr.

On page 119 of his book, THE BOLLING FAMILY - EIGHT CENTURIES OF GROWTH, General Bolling writes that "almost all persons bearing the name of Bolling or related to that family enthusiastically claim blood connections to Princess Pocahontas". And on page 17 of his AN ADDENDUM he writes "that the majority of Bolling/Bowling/Bolin/Bolen in America, though related to the former occupants of Bolling Hall in Bradford, England, have no relationship whatsoever to Pocahontas".

The Elwyns (Elwins), The Booten Hall Portrait and Madame Zuchelli

On pages 310, et seq., of POCAHONTAS' DESCENDANTS an explanation is made of the theory presented by Florence Miriam Elizabeth Dorothea Wright Carson to the effect that Thomas, the son of Pocahontas, had a daughter Anne, who was born in England, and who married Peter Elwin V (1623-1695).

This theory is disputed by William Thorndale in his article "Two Rolfe Negatives" appearing in the July-September 1990 issue of THE VIRGINIA GENEALOGIST. And in the article Mr. Thorndale approves the writing of Fountain Peter Elwyn (1862-1955) that "The family of Elwyn have no descent from the marriage of Rolfe & the Princess Pocahontas". 35 V 433.

As regards the Booten Hall portrait, mention is made "in some undated journal supposed to have belonged to Peter Elwin" (1729-1798), that Madame Zuchelli presented the portrait to that Elwin.

Mr. Thorndale's further investigation reveals that Thomas and Sarah Zuchelli were living at St. Marylebone ca. 1789-93.

But where did Madame Zuchelli (whoever she was) get the painting and when, for whom and by whom was it done?

Pocahontas Memorial Association

The Pocahontas Memorial Association, formed in Washington, D. C., on September 7, 1906, wished to erect at Jamestown a statue of Pocahontas.

The statue by William Ordway Partridge of New York would cost $10,000.00.

A membership fee of $1.00 was charged and the Association sold badges, pins, buttons, photographs of "The Marriage of Pocahontas", postcards, plates and official ribbons but the Association was not able to have the statue ready for the 1907 celebration.

Five years later, on November 18, 1912, Senator Swanson of Virginia made a speech aimed at raising an additional $5,000.00 to pay the balance due to Mr. Partridge and finally, in 1922, the statue was erected.

NOTE: Field and Elizabeth Archer had a son Field Archer born 7/1/1734 (Bristol Parish Register) but he is not mentioned in his father's will (1784), an indication that he may have died before 1784. Is this Field Archer (b. 7/1/1734) the one who married Martha Bolling? Or was she married to Peter Field Archer, a son of Field Archer (b. 7/1/1734)?

Blair Bolling List

The collections of the Virginia Historical Society include a manuscript, "Memoirs of the Bolling Family by Robert Bolling of Buckingham Continued by Blair Bolling of Richmond, Va. 1833", that contains a list, "copyed from the Cobbs Family Bible", of the children of Col. John Bolling and of his wife Elizabeth Bland Blair.

This Blair Bolling list ("BB") differs from the Volta list as reported on pages 328 and 329 of POCAHONTAS' DESCENDANTS in the following respects, and only in the following respects:

Archibald Bolling - BB gives birth date 6/26/1730 (instead of 1/26/1730*1731), and death year 1747 (instead of 1749).

Elizabeth Bolling - BB gives Eliza (instead of Elizabeth), and day of birth date 19 (instead of 10).

Robert Bolling - BB gives birth year 1738 (instead of 1739).

Ann Bolling - BB gives death year 1747.

Edward Bolling - BB gives day of death 18 (instead of 10).

Archibald Bolling - BB gives birth year 1750 (instead of 1749*1750)(2nd of that name).

Jane Bolling - BB gives birth and death dates 8/6/1754-7/29/1754 (instead of 7/6/1754-7/31/1754).

Rebecca Bolling - BB gives birth date 8/6/1754 (instead of 7/6/1754) "survived five days only".

Despite these differences, BB seems to confirm the validity of the Volta list.

These differences are not shown in POCAHONTAS' DESCENDANTS or in this volume.

In a lengthy article, "The Descendants of Pocahontas: An Unclosed Case", in the August 1985 issue (Vol. 23, No. 3) of the Magazine of Virginia Genealogy, Elizabeth Vann Moore and Richard Slatten explore and suggest the possibility that Pocahontas' son, Thomas Rolfe, was the same person as Thomas Relfe (Roelfe?/ Rolfe?/Roelph?) who, ca. 1665, received a patent to 750 acres in North Carolina on the south side of the Pasquotank River.

The writers of the article indicate that Thomas Relfe had at least two sons, Thomas and William, and the writers of the article suggest the possibility that William was the father of Thomas Rolfe of "Yawpim".

Third Marriage (?) of Thomas Rolfe

In the April 1986 issue (Vol. 4, No. 2) of Pocahontas Trails Quarterly, in "My Story" by William Aubrey Rolfe, Mr. Rolfe reports information sent to him by Dan Rolph "of Lexington", and "learned (by Dan Rolph) from a lady in Florida" (Miss Ruth Dunnington).

This information is that Thomas Rolfe married Oi Poi (Uconoco) a daughter of Powhatan's brother, Opechancanough. That their son Thomas Rolfe, Jr. (called Powhatan) was born in 1654, and in 1688, married Sylvania Eleanor Penn. That William Penn Rolfe, son of Thomas Rolfe, Jr., and of his wife, the former Sylvania Eleanor Penn, was born in 1700, and in 1738 married an Indian, Minnie Hawaitha. That William Penn Rolfe and his wife, the former Minnie Hawaitha, had a daughter Wanetta (Juanita) who was born in 1740, and who married William Wesley Weyland.

Grady Lee Randolph

Included in this volume is material taken from Grady Lee Randolph's book "THE RANDOLPHS OF VIRGINIA" (AFTER THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION)(1990).

Some of the material includes names or parts of names. Some make corrections. And some seems to be in error.

For example, Mr. Randolph seems to be in error in his listing of Amelia Randolph (number 811) and of her husband William Bolling (4/5/1731-1776). See POCAHONTAS' DESCENDANTS page 332.

Secondly, Mr. Randolph seems to be in error in his listing of Jediah Randolph (number 5134) as the son of Thomas Mann Randolph. Jediah's name does not appear in the several Randolph family trees and genealogies and because of this, he and his descendants are not included in POCAHONTAS' DESCENDANTS or in this volume.

24314 Robert Kincaid Irving (d. 1894), m. Delia Eldridge (5614). For their child, etc., see under her number. In 20 W(1) 207, the spelling is Kinkead.

The Pocahontas Jug

A 6 1/2 inch tall, mushroom colored, salt-glazed stoneware jug was acquired in 1987 by the Jamestown-Yorktown Foundation from one of the Elwins. See POCAHONTAS' DESCENDANTS, pages 310-311, and this volume page vi.

The jug, attributed to Hans Hilgers, Siegburg, ca. 1590, has an "almost contemporary" but not original silver collar mount incised "TMR".

The "TMR" is said by some to be for Thomas (Rolfe), for Matoaka and for Rebecca.

One idea is that the jug was a gift to Pocahontas from Queen Anne, wife of King James I, and another is that it may have been the King's 1617 New Year gift to Pocahontas.

Peter Gay

In the Paris (Indiana) Cemetery adjacent to Boyleston in Clinton County, there is a simple, rather old stone marker that reads:

Peter Gay
War 1812
1785-1865
Descendant
Pocahontas

Query: Is this Peter Gay a son of Capt. William Gay (41) and of his third wife, Judith Scott?

Peter Gay entered the service on 7/26/1812 at Sharpsburg, Maryland, being drafted to serve a three month's term in Capt. William Curtis' Company, Captain Coles' Regiment, Maryland Militia (Infantry), a unit that was under the command of General Stansbury.

Captain Coles' regiment, raised in Sharpsburg, consisted of about 80 men.

The Company marched to Baltimore (Fair Camp) and engaged in the Battle of Bladensburg. Distance travelled 200 miles.

Peter Gay was discharged in Baltimore on 10/1/1813.

Memorial

Brett Randolph, Jr. (222)

The memorial of Brett Randolph a resident of the county of Amelia state of Va. - Your Memorialist begs leave to represent your Honb. body, that he was born in the county of Gloustershire, of England, on the 17th of Feby. 1760 - that his father & grandfather were both natives of Va. - that his father was sent to England for his education, & sometime in the year 1752 intermarried with Mary Scott a native of Wales, being then about 20 years of age. On the 4th Septr. 1759 he departed this life leaving to his posthumous son a moiety of his estate in Va.- that his mother departed this life in the month of Novr. 1779--- Shortly afterwards your memorialist took passage on a Merchantman, one of the West India fleet bound to St. Christopher's under convoy of Commodore Walsingham - From St. Eustatius he took passage in a Brig bound to Baltimore & reached Richmond about the 20th of Augt. 1780 - The next day, having letters for Mr. Edmund Randolph, from his father, then in London, waited on him & delivered said letters & by his advice took the oath of allegiance to the U.S. - After taking possession of his estate he was enrolled in the militia, & served a short tour under Capt. Robert Bolling, in Jany. 1781, now living in Petersburg, who was dispatched to watch the movement of Arnold, then descending James River. Shortly afterwards he joined a troop of Cavalry under Capt. Carter Page, was with LaFayette when he cannonaded Perersburg from Archer's hill opposite thereto, & continued in the troop till Genl. LaFayette formed a junction with Genl. Wayne wch. took place at Raccoon ford in the county of Orange - On one occasion Genl. LaFayette addressed Capt. Page in the following terms - "Capt. Page, the correct information respecting the british army, which you have communicate to me, demands my warmest acknowledgements to you & your troop of Cavalry, as perhaps it has been the salvation of the american army; should we come to an action, you shall be placed on the right wing"--- Some where in the upper end of Hanover Genl. Thos. Nelson stated to Capt. Page that there were letters of great inportance to be delivered to Thos. Jefferson then Governor of the State as soon as possible - Your Memorialist undertook to deliver them, reached Orange Court-house that night & got to Monticello next morning to breakfast---After reading the letters, the contents of wch were that it was probable that Col. Tarlton would make an attempt to capture the Assembly then sitting at Charlottesville - Mr. Jefferson began to pack up his books, & after finishing his dispatches for Baron Steuben then stationed at the point of fork, your memorialist left Monticello & delivered them the same day- the next day he returned to headquarters which were at Orange Court-house - The result of Tarlton's expedition is well known- on his return from Charlottesville, he formed a junction with Col. Simcoe at the point of Fork, but Baron Steuben had crossed James River & retreated to the South ---when the assembly was sitting in Staunton, your Memorialist was dispatched with letters for Genl. Stevens - on ascending the blue ridge, he was arrested by a party of riflemen, who insisted that he was one of Tarlton's light-horse, that he was an an englishman, & that his cloaths were made in England - the first assertion he denied, the fact he agreed to having on a waistcoat wch was made in England -After shewing them an appointment of a Lieutenancy (in one of the Legions to be raised for the defense of the State) which he had in his pocket, & stating to them that the detention of the letter for Genl. Stevens might be of serious consequence, he was suffered to proceed - staid that night at a tavern on the top of the blue ridge & reached Staunton next morning before Genl. Stephens had risen from his bed. On his return his horse gave out & he was compelled to purchase another, having no authority to impress one --- In conclusion your Memorialist takes leave to observe that his services, tho humble, have been render'd at his own expense - that he furnished a Negro man to work on the fort then called Hood's on James river without receiving any compensation---that he has been the father of ten children, two of wch (died)--that soon after the death of his wife wch happen'd in the month of Jany. 1820, he divided his property amongst his surviving children they stipulating to pay him $30 cash annually - some of them have failed to comply with the stipulation, wch is the cause of this present application --- that he has suffered much from Lawsuits & surety-ship, has been frequently warranted for small sums, is now in the 73d year of his age, & as it is natural for mankind at his time of life (such is his temper) to seek repose & tranquility, your Memorialist solicits some pecuniary aid from his adopted country, & as in duty bound he will forever pray - Amelia County, Va.

Novr. 13th, 1833.
P.S. Altho the troop of cavalry under Captn. Page consisted of nearly 100 - it is believed that your Memorialist is the only survivor.
